M. MacLauchlan stated her concern that the Board will be making the decisions prior to June and not bring the changes to SEAC until then.

The Committee was assured that discussion would occur long before May.

M. MacLauchlan stated she disagrees with the process. There has been no discussion about closing special education classrooms in the county.

Information was shared regarding the difference between special education programs and Locally Developed Compulsory Courses. The special education programs would be relocated.

As stated in the Special Education Plan the students in the modified program stream at Westview are considered partially integrated and transition rooms at either Westview or Western Secondary Schools are fully self contained
